

Budget Resolution for Fiscal Year 2017
(Senate Concurrent Resolution 3)
United States House of Representatives, January 13, 2017

Senate Concurrent Resolution Three (S. Con. Res. 3) is a budget resolution that, among other things, calls for the repeal of the Affordable Care Act (also known as Obamacare). The House of Representatives passed S. Con. Res. 3, 227-198, on January 13, 2017. The resolution previously passed the United States Senate, 51-48, on January 12, 2017; Sens. Charles Schumer (D-NY) and Kirsten Gillibrand (D-NY) voted “nay.” A concurrent resolution is non-binding and does not require presidential approval.

Eight Members of New York’s congressional delegation voted “yea,” and 19 Members of New York’s congressional delegation voted “nay.” The full voting record of New York’s congressional delegation is set forth below.
