

Equality Amendment
Bill S.51002-Stewart-Cousins/A.41002-Rules (Seawright)
New York State Assembly, July 1, 2022

The so-called Equality Amendment would add anti-discrimination protections to the New York State Constitution based on several new criteria, including “sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, pregnancy outcomes, and reproductive healthcare and autonomy.” The Equality Amendment would protect abortion as a constitutional right. This proposed constitutional amendment passed both houses of the New York State Legislature on July 1, 2022. To become effective, it must be re-passed by each house in 2023 and must be approved by New York voters in 2023 or 2024. The New York State Assembly passed the Equality Amendment by a vote of 95-45.
