

Gender Expression Non-Discrimination Act
(S.195-B – Squadron/A.4226-B – Gottfried)
New York State Assembly, June 10, 2014

The Gender Expression Non-Discrimination Act (GENDA), sometimes referred to as the “Bathroom Bill,” purposes to ban discrimination on the basis of “gender identity or expression” in employment, housing, banking, education, and public accommodations. GENDA would allow males with female gender identities to use women’s bathrooms and locker rooms in places of public accommodation. On June 10, 2014, the New York State Assembly passed GENDA by a vote of 86-48. The State Senate has not voted on the bill to date.
